

CHARLES D. SCOTT

Captain Charles “Charley” D. Scott, of Decatur, was cremated at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home on July 13, 2007. He died at home with his family at his side on July 12, 2007 at the age of 73.

Captain Scott born August 11, 1933. He was a retired USAF and Braniff International captain and a member of the Community Church in Decatur and Bridgeport Country Club. He also loved to spend time at the Decatur Airport flying with his son, Dennis Scott.

He is survived by his wife of 51 years, Shirely Scott of Decatur; son, Dennis Scott and wife Rosalinda of Decatur; daughters, Sandra Scott Dalton and husband Craig of Southlake and Rae Scott Craig and husband Rick of Keller; brother, Jim Scott and wife Dorothy of Oklahoma; grandchildren, Jerihmy Dalton, Franci Dalton Hardisty and husband Justin, Cassi Dalton, Amanda Scott, Daniel Scott, Ben Scott and Brandon Craig; great-grandchildren, Taylor and Corey Dalton; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

A memorial service was held July 15 at the Community Church in Decatur. In lieu of flowers the family has established a Mission Scholarship Fund at North Texas Bank in Decatur.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Texas.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, July 19, 2007