

DOTTIE LOUISE DORSEY

Dottie Louise Dorsey, 88, a retired licensed vocational nurse, died March 13, 2007 in Denton.

Mrs. Dorsey was born January 25, 1919 in Decatur to Marvin H. and Elba Moore Kellam. She lived all her life in the house in which she was born until November 2006 when she moved to Denton. She loved people, her family and friends and caring for people. She was a Baptist.

Survivors include her sons, Gaylon Dorsey of Decatur and Danny Dorsey and wife Anita of Aubrey; daughter, Myrna Clark and husband Larry of Denton; brother, M.H. Kellam and wife Dorthea of Washington State; eight grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral service was March 16 at the Coker Hawkins Chapel with the Rev. James Earp officiating. Interment was at the Sweetwater Cemetery. Pallbearers were Mike Huggins, Jeromy Higgins, Weston Dorsey, Steven Sasser, Jason Dorsey and Eddie Howerton.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, March 22, 2007