

IRA OGLE PLEASANT

Ira Ogle Pleasant, 94, of Bridgeport died Friday, February 16, 2007. He was born July 23, 1912 in Chico.

Ira retired from Conoco, Inc. after working 26 years as a Gas Plant Operator. He was an amateur radio operator for 60 years and was a member of the Cates Street Church of Christ. He also served in the National Guard.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Selma (Vivian)Pleasant; his brother, H.A. Pleasant; and 3 sisters, Inez Stack, Wilda Thorne, and Bennie Watson.

Survivors include daughter; Wanda Stone and husband Wayne of Decatur, 2 grandchildren: Curtis Stone and wife Regina of Decatur, Landon Stone and wife Melissa of Keller; 3 great grandchildren; Brandon, Alissa, and Jacie Stone with Julie on the way due in March.

The funeral was held Monday, February 19 at the Hawkins Funeral Chapel with buriel at Chico Cemetery. Bro. Roger Rhodes assisted by Rev. Johnny Irish officiated.

Pallbearers were Carroll Collier, Melvin Pewitt, Ronnie Pewitt, Kevin Pewitt, Jimmy Pleasant, John Barnard, Tommy Pleasant, Toby Pleasant.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, February 22, 2007