

SHANE EICHTHALER

Shane Anthony Eichthaler, 15, a student at Decatur High School, died Sunday, November 25, 2007.

He was born January 7, 1992, in Ft Worth, Texas, to Steven Eichthaler and Candace Marie Richardson.

Shane was Vice President of the Student Council of Decatur High School. He played trumpet in the band, sang tenor in the choir, was a member of the Spanish Club and the PanAmerican Student Forum; and was a member of the Flamenco Dance team. He was very active in the theatre and was most remembered for his performance as LeFou in Beauty and the Beast. Shane was in the Red Steagall Cowboy Association and won twice in the cowboy poetry competition.

Shane was very active in the community. He helped build a house for Habitat for Humanity and was very involved in the carriage and wagon business that his family operated.

Left behind to cherish his memory is his father, Steven W. Eichthaler; brother, Steven James Eichthaler; grandmother, Gayle Eichthaler of Durango, Colorado; grandparents, Richard and Cynthia Eichthaler of Durango, Colorado; great grandmother, Alberta Dobbins; uncle, Scott Eichthaler of Durango, Colorado; aunt and uncle, Deb and Roger Herrera of Marvel, Colorado; uncle, Troy Eichthaler of Denver and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

Shane is preceded in death by grandfather, James Richard-son and great grandparents, Anthony and Margaret Eichthaler, and Ernest Dobbins.

A Celebration of Life Memorial Service for Shane and his mother, Candace Richard-son, was held at 4:30 p.m. Monday, December 3rd, at the Decatur High School Theatre.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main Street • Decatur, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, December 6, 2007