

WAYNE JACKSON SHEPHERD

Wayne Jackson Shepherd, 61, owner and CEO of Cowboy Vending, died Saturday, February 17, 2007 in Haslett .

Mr. Shepherd was born August 13, 1945 in Graham. He attended the First Baptist Church in Hurst and was a member of the Tarleton Alumni Association, the Texas Merchandising Vending Association, the N.R.A., and the Texas Trophy Hunters.

He was preceded in death by his father, Walter Shepherd and his father-in-law, S.W. Coan.

Survivors: wife, Priscilla Shepherd of Haslett; sons: John Wayne Shepherd and wife Brandy of North Richland Hills, Clint Jackson Shepherd and wife Rebekah of Fort Worth; Mother, Lela Shepherd of Boyd; brother, Kenny Shepherd and wife Dorothy of Boyd; sister, Leann Pierce and husband Rusty of Fort Worth; grandchildren: Amber, Bailey, Ashlynn, and Tristan; numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of friends.

Funeral service was held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, February 21 at the First Methodist Church in Boyd with burial at Boyd Cemetery. Rev. Ken May and Rev. Bob Turk officiated. Pallbearers were Tony Brooks, Bill Reed, Robert Burns, John Cambell, Tom Price, Chris Newton.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, March 1, 2007