

MADALYN KRISTINA McQUISTON

1923-2008

DECATUR: Madalyn Kristina McQuiston, 84, a homemaker, formerly of Runaway Bay, Texas died on Friday, August 15, 2008 in Decatur.

Madalyn was born September 24, 1923, in Winfield, Kansas to Arthur and Tina Brewer. She graduated with an associate degree from Colorado Women's College in Denver, Colorado. She married Horace Leman McQuiston on June 9, 1946, in Winfield, Kansas. She is preceded in death by her husband of 53 years at his death in April, 2000. She and her husband lived in Runaway Bay from 1977 to 2000. She was an elder of the Presbyterian Church, was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Bridgeport, and was a member of the church choir.

Survivors include her sons, Harvey McQuiston and wife, Colleen of Katy, Texas, Garrett McQuiston and wife, Kathy of Plano and Mike McQuiston and wife Kristi of Decatur; six grandchildren, Meredith, Tiffany, Ryan, Cassidy, Carlye and Mollory; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial service will be at the Rose Hill Memorial Park in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Saturday, August 23rd with Pastor, Adam Barnett, her great nephew, officiating the service.

Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home

405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, August 21, 2008