

MARSHALL F. JOHNSON

1915-2008

Marshall F. Johnson, 92, the owner of Johnson Machine Works in Bridgeport and Ft. Worth died Sunday, March 2, 2008 in Decatur.

Marshall was born Sept. 4, 1915 in Amherst, Nebraska to Homer L. and Cecile Merrick Johnson. He was preceded in death by his wife, Loien; wife, Marjorie; sons, Jim Bob Chivers and Kelly Stegall; sisters, Vivian Brown, Fern Divine, Velma Brander and Dorothy Carda and grandchildren, Kathleen Stegall and Jade Chivers. Marshall married Jackie Clayton Nov. 19, 1988 in Bridgeport. He was a member of Balsora Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Jackie Johnson of Bridgeport; sons, Marshall Johnson and wife, Velva of Colleyville, Darrel Johnson and wife, Shirley of Murrieta, California and Paul Johnson and wife, Carol of Arlington; daughters, Donna Frary of New York, Vicki Leis and husband, Ron of Garden Plains, Kansas and Judy Keichlin and husband Kevin of Colorado Springs, Colorado; sons, Bill Chivers and wife, Jane of Grapevine, Tom Chivers and wife, Lorez of Carrollton and Jim Stegall and wife, Pat of Bridgeport; and daughter-in-laws, Beverly Stegall of Bridgeport and Glenda Chivers; 27 grandchildren and 46 great-grandchildren; brother, Ken Johnson of Chapel, Nebraska and special niece, Louise Heinz of Oregon.

Funeral will be 10:30 a.m. Thursday, March 6, 2008 at Balsora Baptist Church. Officiating: Rev. Matt Norton and assisted by Rev. Robbie Wynn. Burial: Willow Point Cemetery.

Pallbearers: Paul Johnson, Jr., Brad Johnson, Tyler Olsen, Jason Peeler, Mike Hoselton, Shane Stegall, Steven Stegall, Andrew Ponder.

Memorials: Balsora Baptist Church or Willow Point Cemetery.

Hawkins Funeral Home 1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Tx.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, March 6, 2008