

ASZELENE SOUTHER

1923-2008

DECATUR: Aszelene Souther, 84, a retired seamstress, died Wednesday, April 9, 2008, in Decatur.

Aszelene was born December 13, 1923 to George and Mary Francis Hall in Grayson County. She married C. D. Souther on May 25, 1941, in Pottsboro, Texas and were married for 59 years until his death on September 18, 2000. Aszelene was a retired seamstress, a member of the First Baptist Church of Decatur, and a member of the Decatur Quilting Club. She enjoyed quilting, gardening and cooking for her family.

Survivors include her daughters, Clara Garrett and husband, Johnny of Decatur, Patricia Gage and husband, Jimmy of Decatur; son, David Souther and Joyce Bennett of Forestburg, sisters Mary Wood of Whitesboro, Geneva Hill Foster of Breckenridge; 7 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren and 2 great, great grandchildren.

Aszelene is preceded in death by her husband, 3 sisters, 1 brother, great grandson, Wil Goode.

Funeral services were at 10 a.m. Friday, April 11th at the Coker-Hawkins Chapel with burial in Oaklawn Cemetery. Matthew Gage and Sonny Smith officiated.

Pallbearers were Larry Gage, Danny Souther, Mike Garrett, Tommy Souther, Tom Goode, Kenneth Wood, Wes Small and Wayne Berg.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, April 17, 2008