

1917-2011

JACKSBORO: Juanita Lee Shields Calhoun died on Thursday, September 29, 2011, in Fort Worth, Texas.

Juanita Lee Shields Calhoun was born on July 18, 1917, in Jack County Texas in the Damron Community to William Leonard and Ada May (Weir) Shields. Juanita married James W. Calhoun on July 2, 1939, in Jacksboro, Texas.

Juanita was a homemaker and an active member of the Jacksboro Community. Juanita was a member of Bethel Assembly of God Church and volunteered for the Food Pantry, the Clothes Closet and cooked for the Lions Club.

Preceded in death by her parents; her husband; her sons: Danny Ray, Leonard Doyle and Howard Dwayne Calhoun; her brothers: Creston, Herman and Winfred Shields and her sisters: Lavina Shields and Audry Day.

Survivors include her daughters: Doris Ware and husband, Bob of Paradise and Dorcas Kirk of Mansfield; her sons: Dale Calhoun of Fairbanks, Alaska; David Calhoun and wife, Brenda of Wichita Falls; Dean Calhoun and wife, Lera of Dayton, Texas and her daughters-in-law Betty Calhoun of Mineral Wells and Pam Calhoun of Sanger; her sister, Arlene Whistler and many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, extended family members and friends.

Services were held on Sunday, October 2, 2011, at Coker Funeral Home Chapel in Jacksboro with burial following at Lynn Creek Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: David Skinner, Brandon Calhoun, Chip McFerrin, Eric Damron, Travis Damron and Bly Hayhurst. Officiated by Brother Jim Spalding and Brother Curtis Amburn.

Memorials may be given to Concerned Citizens of Jack County, Meals on Wheels program, 400 East Pine Street, Jacksboro, Texas 76458.

Coker Funeral Home

152 State Hwy 148 • Jacksboro, Tx.

