

CYNTHIA LEE COTTEN

1964-2011

DECATUR: Cynthia Lee “Boo” Cotten, 46, a claims specialist, died on Monday, July 18, 2011, in Decatur.

Cynthia was born December 17, 1964, in Lubbock, Texas to Jack and Barbara (Bruton) O’Neal. She was a graduate of Lubbock High School and American Commercial College.

Cynthia married Robert Dan Cotton on July 26, 1992, in Dimmitt, Texas. She was employed by All-state Dallas Market Claims Office as a Senior Claims Processor for 14 years. Cynthia loved her family, friends and coworkers. She loved animals and was very active in animal rescue and animal adoption.

Survivors include her husband of 19 years, Robert Cotton of Decatur; daughter, Caylla Breann Cotton of Decatur; son, David Brandon Wages of Wichita Falls, Texas; three (3) brothers, Bryan Jackson and Ronald Burt O’Neal both of Lubbock, Tommy Heath of San Angelo; sister, Barbara Diane Abel of Orlando, Florida; nephews, James Scott O’Neal and Ryan O’Neal Abel; and niece, Krista Le Shae Yates.

Family request memorials be made to your favorite animal charity.

Private memorial service will be held in Wolfforth, Texas at a later date.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

