

TIM JAMES

1955-2011

DECATUR: Tim James, 55, owner of Bridgeport Oilfield Services, died on Tuesday, May 3, 2011, in Fort Worth.

Tim was born September 13, 1955, in Big Lake, Texas to Clifton and Janet (Goddard) James. He married Kimberly Hass on November 11, 2006, in Decatur, Texas. Tim is preceded in death by his father, and son, Clifton Tanner James.

Survivors include his wife, Kimberly James of Decatur; mother, Janet James of Comanche; three sons, Ryan and Logan James and, Nicholas Birmingham all of Decatur; four daughters, Tobie Round-tree and husband, Tim of Cedar Park, Texas, Kaycee Clark and husband, Charlie of Midland, Ashley Johnson and husband, Chris of Decatur and Sarah Good of Cisco, Texas; seven grandchildren, Bradon, Brinlyn, Laynie, Payton, Avery, Emma and Caden; two brothers, Mike James of Round Rock, Steve James of El Paso; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Family requests memorials be made to Ronald McDonald House, 1004 7th Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas 76104.

Funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Friday, May 6, 2011, at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home with Terry Brown officiating. Interment: Sand Hill Cemetery.

Pallbearers included Gerald Byrd, Jim McCallister, Patrick Aderman, Adrian Vasquez, Cullen Ingram, and J. D. Wilkerson.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*