

JAMES (JIM) MCKEEVER

1942-2011

BOYD: James (Jim) McKeever of Boyd, Texas, died on Monday, August 15, 2011, in Decatur.

Jim was born to John and Lucille (Crouse) McKeever October 15, 1942, in Washington, DC, and grew up in West River, Maryland.

He moved to Tucson, Arizona in 1961, where he later met and married Judith Joy Doyle. Jim and Judy moved back to West River, Maryland in 1968, and then to Boyd, Texas in 1976, where they settled down.

Jim was a loving husband, dedicated father and friend to everyone he met. He was a retired machinist, master electrician and built custom homes in the Wise county area, but his true calling was telling everyone about the love of Jesus.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years, Judy; daughters Mary Taylor, her husband, Dale and children Jared and Rachel, Suzan McCraren, her husband, Ronny and daughter, Leslie; siblings Carol Wisniewski and her husband, Rick, Teri Foringer and her husband, Jim, Althea McKeever, Lucy McKeever, Leo McKeever, and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial was held Saturday, August 20, 2011, at 10 a.m. at The Father's House, 4337 Hwy 380, Decatur, Texas.
