

MABEL IRENE DUNCAN

1918-2012

HAMLIN - Mabel Irene Duncan, 94, died Thursday, June 7, 2012, in Granbury.

Mabel was born to Edgar W. and Leila (York) Moore. She married Edgar E. Duncan December 25, 1937, in Floydada and they moved to Hamlin in 1946, where he owned and operated the Piggly Wiggly Grocery Store. Mabel enjoyed traveling with her husband, sewing, cooking and being a homemaker for her family. She was a member of the First Baptist Church where she was a Sunday School teacher for many years and a leader in the Women's Missionary Union. Mabel is preceded in death by her parents, husband and brother (J.D. Moore).

Mabel is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Jerry and Deenie Duncan of Burleson and Joey and Naomi Duncan of Bridgeport; one daughter, Connie Jo Duncan of Granbury; five grandchildren and spouses, Michelle and Michael Levick, Waylon and Angie Roberson, Chad and Jennifer Duncan, Julie and Adam Young, and Paul and Angela Duncan; and eight great-grandchildren, Alex Roberson, Tate Roberson, Duncan Rober-son, Joley Young, Emery Young, Abigail Duncan, Hannah Duncan and Sarah Duncan.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 9, 2012, at the First Baptist Church with visitation before the service at 1 p.m. Burial will be in Hamlin Memorial Cemetery, directed by Adams-Foster-Ray Funeral Home.

Adams-Foster-Ray Funeral Home