

JERRY LOYD JACKSON

1941-2012

BRIDGEPORT: Jerry Loyd Jackson, 71, died Sunday, December 16, 2012, in Decatur.

Mr. Jackson was born October 8, 1941, in Gatesville, Texas, to Lillian (Wittie) and E. L. Jackson. He grew up in Hico, Texas and knew Brushy Bill Roberts (aka Billy the Kid) before his death in 1950. His family moved to Pecos, Texas where he met and married Mary Frances Hale on October 26, 1959. He and Frances moved to Wise County in 1965 where they raised their four children and he worked in the oilfield, eventually starting and running his own oilfield business.

He is survived by his wife, their four children Randell, Ricky, Rhonda, and Reda; son-in-laws Tony Henry and Jeff Horner; sisters Earnestine Cauble and husband, James, of Katy, Texas, Pauline Faubion and husband, Rex, of Albuquerque, New Mexico; Mary Peacock and husband, Loyd, of Lovington, New Mexico; brother-in-law, Wayne Dorsett, of Lubbock, Texas; nine grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, numerous in-laws, nephews, nieces, and close friends. He was preceded in death by his sister Marie Dorsett and brother Alton Jackson.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday, December 19, 2012 at in the Chapel at Jones Funeral Home in Bridgeport with interment at Wilson Prairie Cemetery.

*Jones Family Funeral Home
1401 Halsell St. • Bridgeport, Tx.*

