

JACK KEENER

1935-2012

SOUTHLAKE: Jack Keener, 77, a retired self employed carpenter, died Tuesday, November 6, 2012, in Hurst.

Jack was born on September 27, 1935, to Pete and Audrey (Gammons) Keener, in Fort Worth. He worked in the construction field building houses, cabinets, and trim work. Jack also became an excellent auto body repairman and owned his own business, at one time, in Grapevine. He was a Christian and Baptist and earlier in his life he followed a calling to preach and was a man that loved the Lord and raised his 7 children to do the same. In the early years, he enjoyed playing the guitar, gardening, and raising animals of all types; later in life, he developed a passion for cooking and loved to give his family various jarred foods, jellies, and hot sauces. The thing he enjoyed most of all was having his family around him and he passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones.

Survivors include his children, Toni Waldrep and husband, David, of Mansfield, Mary Marshall, of Arlington, Terrie Thrasher and husband, Wesley, of Southlake, Dee Dee Keener, of Houston, Shannon Keener, of Southlake, Shane Keener, of Hurst, and Christie Good and husband, Chris, of Hurst; 17 grandchildren; 13 great grandchildren; other family members and a host of friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Feed the Children, 800-627-4556.

Graveside service was held at 12 p.m. Friday, November 9, 2012, at Aurora Cemetery. Bro. Jesse Simon officiated.

Pallbearers included Shannon Keener, David Waldrep, Aaron Keener, Wesley Thrasher, Brant Waldrep, and Shane Keener.
