

MARJORIE AARON MITCHELL

1922-2012

BRIDGEPORT: Marjorie Aaron Mitchell, 89, a retired school teacher, died on April 1, 2012, in Bridgeport.

Marjorie was born on July 16, 1922, to J.H. and Avis (Howell) Aaron at her grandparent's home in Rotan. She graduated from Rotan High School in 1939, and graduated from McMurry College (now University) in 1944.

During WWII, she worked in the aircraft industry as an accountant in Dallas. When the war ended, she returned to Rotan to teach. Marjorie was united in marriage to Frank K. Mitchell who was a Fisher County farmer and returning veteran on February 14, 1948. They farmed and raised cattle three miles southeast of Roby until Frank's death in 1998. Frank was also the long time ASCS, now FSA, of-office manager for Fisher County.

Marjorie was a director for the Girl Scouts in the 1950's then returned to teaching in Roby. She was always very active in 4H, Girl Scouts, The Fisher County Historical Commission and her great love, the First United Methodist Church in Roby. She was a loving mother to her two daughters, Sharon and Barbara. Marjorie spent her last few years in Bridgeport to be close to her daughter, Barbara; was very active at the First United Methodist Church in Decatur; and resided at Residence of Senior Care in Bridgeport.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her son-in-law, Lee Swan; her grandson, Charles Swan; and her brother, James A. Aaron.

She is survived by her daughters, Sharon Holston and husband, Dr. Robert of Cross Plains, Tennessee and Barbara Swan, of Alvord; five grandchildren, Michelle Holston Short and husband, Gary Robert, of Celina, Tennessee, Robert Holston, Jr. and wife, Barri, of Helena, Alabama, Jeremy Frank Holston, of Cross Plains, Tennessee, Jennifer Marie Waid and husband, Adam, of Murfreesboro, Tennessee and Richard Curtiss Swan, of Ypsilanti, Michigan; seven great grandchildren, Mitchell, Chelsea, Kanyon, and Kalina Short, Barrett Ann and Knox Holston, and Tyler Holston; her sister in law, Dora Dee Mitchell, of Abilene; her brother in law, Foy L. Mitchell, of Sweet-water; other family members and a host of friends.

Funeral was held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, April 7, 2012, at the First United Methodist Church of Roby with burial in Roby Cemetery.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Tx*