

ERNESTEEN “TEEN” MOTSENBOCKER

1927-2012

DECATUR: Ernesteen “Teen” Motsenbocker, 84, of Decatur, formerly of Idalou and Bridgeport, died on Wednesday, January 18, 2012, in Decatur.

Ernesteen was born December 3, 1927, in Decatur to Ernest and Lois (Ewing) Davis. She was a graduate of Paradise High School and Draughn’s Business College. Ernesteen was united in marriage to Ralph Motsenbocker on May 21, 1946, in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Ernesteen was a devout Baptist and enjoyed teaching children’s Sunday School classes. Her hobbies included water and boating activities with her family and playing Bridge with her friends. Ernesteen had an extensive business career in the Idalou and Lubbock area; including employment at Blue Flame Gas, Idalou ISD, First Federal Savings & Loan in Lubbock and Kanine Akademy in Decatur. She also volunteered and participated with Amen X-Press, a non-profit geriatrics singing ministry.

Survivors include her husband of 66 years, Ralph Motsenbocker of Decatur, son, Kirk Motsenbocker and wife Cheryl of Flower Mound; daughter Kim Saling and husband, David of Decatur; two grandsons, Zachary Motsenbocker of Flower Mound, R. J. Hunt of Decatur; two granddaughters, Ashlyn and Alesha Shobar; and great grandson, Davis Hunt.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to Amen X-Press, 3519 South Murvil Street, Decatur, Texas 76234.

Funeral service was held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, January 23, 2012, at Grace Baptist Church with Dr. Bill Hughes and Dr. Van Gardner officiating. Interment: Paradise Cemetery.

Pallbearers included Bryan Shobar, R.J. Hunt, Randy Singleton, Jeff Singleton, Brent Singleton and Gary Cocanougher.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

