

MARVIN PICHA

1942-2012

DECATUR: Marvin Picha, 69, a retired teacher, died Wednesday, August 29, 2012, in Decatur.

Marvin was born October 15, 1942, in Ben Hur, Texas, to Frank and Theophilia (Locke) Picha. He was united in marriage to Glenda Hodges on June 19, 1965, in Haltom City, Texas. Marvin received his Bachelors of Science degree from Texas Wesleyan College in Fort Worth. A former coach and science teacher at Birdville ISD, retired from Chico ISD in 2004.

Survivors include his wife of 47 years, Glenda Picha; two sons, Mike Picha and wife, Holly and Matt Picha and wife, Lisa, all of Decatur; grandson, Morgan Picha; two sisters, Helen Brezina, of Sugarland and Mary Ann Bailey, of Arkansas; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Marvin is preceded in death by his parents, brother, Frank Picha and sister, Ruby Lee Patterson.

Funeral service was held at 10 a.m. Friday, August 31, 2012, at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel. Interment was at 2 p.m. Friday at Moore Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Arlington, Texas.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

