

JAMES G. DAVIS

1940-2013

DECATUR: James G. Davis, 73, a retired concrete cutter, died on Thursday, August 15, 2013 in Decatur.

James was born May 23, 1940, in Bristow, Oklahoma to Shorty and Rachel (Stovall) Davis. He was united in marriage to Shirley Thompson on June 19, 1988 in Roanoke, Texas.

Survivors include his wife, Shirley Davis of Decatur; six sons, Jeff Davis of Chandler, Tx, Dennis Davis of Plano, Glen Davis and wife, Konnie of Arlington, Ray Davis of Azle, Dale Thornhill of Decatur and Richard Thornhill and wife, Judi of Southlake; daughter, Terri Wiggins and husband, Phil of Fort Worth; 16 grandchildren, Ashley Pitmon, Katie Davis, Katie Dennis, Kandie Martinez, Kolton Davis, Brian and Timothy Wiggins, Robert, Roland, Paytyne, Ryne, Jamie, Callie and Sydney Thornhill; Lindsey and Lauren Davis; three great-grandchildren, Kaden Dennis and Logan and Ellie Wiggins; brother, Ray Davis and wife, Carolyn of Richardson.

James was preceded in death by his parents, daughter, Shari Alvey, two brothers, Gene and Jerry Davis and sister, Shirley Patrick.

Funeral service was held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, August 20th at Pleasant Grove Cowboy Church in Decatur with Pastor Rowland Hodge officiating. Interment: Azle-land Cemetery in Azle.

Pallbearers included Brian Wiggins, Timothy Wiggins, Robert Thornhill, Roland Thornhill, Ryne Thornhill, Jamie Thornhill and Kolton Davis.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, August 22, 2013