

MELODY DELYN MOODY-RASCO

1968-2013

SPRINGTOWN: Melody Delyn Moody-Rasco, 44, of Springtown, died on January 10, 2013, in Decatur.

Melody was born November 13, 1968, to Ray Gene “Buddy” Moody, Sr., and wife Lois (Permenter) in Irving, Texas. She graduated from Haltom Senior High School, and went on to obtain two Associate degrees from Weatherford College. While attending classes, she co-founded a club that raised money to help the disabled. During this time she also had one of her many poems published and was listed in ‘Who’s Who.’

She was a member of, and immensely enjoyed fellowship with, the First Baptist Church of Cottdale. She spent her life dedicated to God. She loved arts and crafts, including wood crafts, and collecting porcelain dolls.

She is survived by her husband, Mark Rasco, of Springtown; parents, Buddy and Lois Moody, of Decatur; her sisters, Annette Forsythe and husband, Gary, of Dickinson and Terri Meeks and husband, Dan, of Paradise; her brother Ray ‘Corky’ Moody and wife, Lisa, of Paradise; mother-in-law, Alice Rasco, of Spring-town; and many loving aunts, uncles, nephews, nieces, and in-laws.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Bill and Maudie Moody and Lesley and Emma Permenter; and many beloved aunts, uncles and cousins.

Funeral services were held Monday, January 14, 2013, at 10 a.m. at the First Baptist Church of Cottdale, officiated by pastors Charles Pugh, of First Baptist Church of Cottdale, and Terry Terry, of Friendship Baptist Church in Boyd. Burial followed at Cottdale Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Gary Forsythe, Daniel Meeks, Sr., Chad Blair, Anthony Hicks, Bruce Rasco, and Billy Thompson.
