

JAMES C. “JIMMY” RICHARDS, JR.

1957-2013

DECATUR: James Cornelius “Jimmy” Richards Jr., 55, died on Friday, May 24, 2013 in Decatur.

Jimmy was born September 8, 1957, in New Orleans, Louisiana, to James “Jim” Sr. and Catherine Elaine (Over-all) Richards. Jimmy worked for more than 20 years in the restaurant hospitality business and was currently a waiter at Sweetie Pie’s Ribeye in Decatur. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Decatur.

Survivors include his parents; sisters, Molly Black and husband, Klif, of Stephenville, Beth Mc-Curdy and husband, Pat, and Gay Trachta and husband, Wayne, of Decatur; nieces and nephews, Jennifer and Shay Collins, Stephanie and Nathan Strange, Yates, Lauren and Cole McCurdy and Reagan, Kendall, Nicholas and Cameron Trachta; and great-niece and great-nephew, Emma and Zane Collins.

Funeral service was held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, May 28, 2013, at the First United Methodist Church in Decatur with the Reverend John Taylor and the Reverend Brian Bosworth officiating. Interment followed service in Oaklawn Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Klif Black, Pat McCurdy, Wayne Trachta, Shay Collins, Cole McCurdy, Yates McCurdy, Nathan Strange and Nicholas Trachta.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

