

SAMUEL CHARLES ROBERTSON SR.

1934-2013

SPRINGTOWN: Samuel Charles Robertson Sr., “Pepaw Sam”, 79, an electrician, died on Sunday, July 14, 2013, in Springtown.

Sam was born on January 8, 1934, in Sugarland, Texas to William and Mildred (Bryan) Robertson. He was one out of three boys. Sam was an electrician with the Union Electrician IBEW Local 20. He served his country in the National Guard. Sam had an amazing life! He traveled to several places and made numerous friends along the way. (Too many to count). No matter where he went, he instantly made friends. Sam was charismatic and had a heart of gold! He loved to share stories, about adventures he has lived, with his family. Sam had so many, he could keep the stories coming for hours! He was a truly wonderful man that was loved by everyone that knew him.

Pepaw leaves behind several family and friends, his children, Cathryn Miller and husband, Richard Vines, Brenda Robson and husband, Scott, Bryan Robertson and wife, Patricia, Sam Robertson Jr, Nancy Petty and husband, John, and Robert Robertson; his grandchildren, Korri Webster and husband, Jacob, David Robson, Meagan Robson, Rikki Rodriguez and husband, Jr, Jessica Collins, Tyler Petty, Grant Petty, Shanette and husband, Chris, Felicia, and Falanda; his great-grandchildren, Devon, Piper, Ariyana, Izaya, Adrian, Karisma, Kambryn and 13 more; lots of friends, Greg Miller, Cheryl, Dwight and Mary just to name a few; and other family members.

No service is scheduled at this time.
