

MILTON D. TRAVIS, SR.

1930-2013

AURORA: Milton D. Travis, Sr., 83, a retired Grey-hound bus driver, died Monday, November 25, 2013, in Fort Worth, Texas.

Milton was born April 3, 1930, in Brandon, Texas to Chalmus Leper and Hetty (West) Travis. He was united in marriage to Correne Layne on October 10, 1953. Milton served in the United States Army and was a member of the Abundant Life Worship Church in Boyd.

Milton was a loving husband and his wife's sweetheart. He and Correne recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. Milton was a loving Father, Grandfather and Great-Grandfather. He loved his dog, "Cocoa", and was an avid lover of sports. Milton loved to work in the garden, but his biggest love is Jesus.

Left behind to cherish his memory are his wife, Correne Travis of Aurora; three sons, Milton Dewell Travis, Jr. and wife, Sherry of Fort Worth, Danny Lee Travis and wife, Leticia of Grand Prairie, Kenneth Layne Travis, Sr. and wife, Cindy of Aurora; daughter, Teresia Allen and husband, Gary Len of Whitesboro; 18 grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren; two brothers, Melvin Travis and Larry Travis; and two sisters, Frances Barrett and Jean Badget.

Funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Saturday, November 30th at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend Jerry Hood officiating. Interment: Aurora Cemetery.

Pallbearers included Milton Dewell Travis, Jr., Danny Lee Travis, Kenneth Travis, Sr., Milton Dewell Travis, III, Kenneth Travis, Jr. and Jason Dewell Wilson.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, December 5, 2013

