

DOROTHY JUNE WAGNER

1940-2013

DECATUR: Dorothy June Wagner, 70, died on Monday, April 29, 2013, in Decatur, Texas.

Dorothy was born November 13, 1940, in Coleman, Texas, to Carl T. and Dora (Meador) Champion. She was united in marriage to Paul Wagner on December 18, 1999, in Cross Plains, Texas. Dorothy was a member of Alvord Church of Christ.

Survivors include, husband, Paul Wagner, of Boyd; three sons, Sam Mosley, of Anchorage, Alaska, Jamey Mosley, of Lake Fork, Texas and Johnny Mosley and wife, Rhonda, of Boyd, Texas; daughter Ranae Burgess and husband, Lynn, of Lewisville; two sisters, Vonita Champion of Cross Plains and Zona Mosley, of Abilene, Texas; four grandchildren, Bridget Johnson of Mansfield, Arkansas, Cody Mosley of Anchorage, Alaska, Crystal Ann and Tiffany June Mosley, both of Boyd; one great-granddaughter.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, first husband, Charles Mosley, brother, Eddie Champion, sister, Joyce Parkinson; two grandsons, John Charles Mosley, Jr. and Brian Mosley.

Funeral service was held at 2 p.m. Thursday, May 2, 2013, at Cross Plains Church of Christ with Chester Cullum officiating. Interment: Cross Plains Memorial Cemetery in Cross Plains, Texas.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*