

JOSEPH CHARLES BELLONE

1926-2014

BRIDGEPORT: Joseph Charles Bellone died Friday, December 4, 2014.

Mr. Bellone was born in Long Branch, New Jersey in 1926.

He graduated from Long Branch High School where he was known as “Joey”. In high school, Mr. Bellone enjoyed soccer, basketball, track, and being a lifeguard at the shore. At the time of graduation, World War II was still being fought and Mr. Bellone enlisted in the Civil Air Patrol and attained the rank of sergeant. The Civil Air Patrol became part of the Air Force after the war ended.

He attended Monmouth College and obtained his bachelor in business administration at New York University, New York, New York.

Mr. Bellone met his future bride, Miss Julia Buckshaw, at the Jersey shore while enjoying one of his favorite activities, roller skating. They married in 1952.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his wife, Julie Bellone.

Mr. Bellone is survived by his son Michael and wife, Karin, of Decatur; Michael’s son, Ryan, of Melbourne, Florida; Karin’s daughter, Jenni, son Jeff, and great-grandchildren Colin, Josh, Daisy, Justin, Teagan and Quinn.

Funeral services were held in Bridgeport, Texas on Saturday, December 6, 2014.

*Jones Family Funeral Home
1401 Halsell St. • Bridgeport, Tx.*

