

GENEVA LUCILLE POTTER

1929-2014

DECATUR: Geneva Lucille Potter, 84, a cook, died Wednesday, October 1, 2014 in Decatur.

Geneva Lucille Potter was born October 27, 1929 to Johnnie and Lorene (Norris) Dunn. She was born and raised in Decatur. Lucille married James Lee Potter on October 19, 1946 at the age of 17 and she immediately became the mother of four small children. She had two more sons for a total of six children.

She was preceded in death by her husband; three sons: Ricky Sr., Ronnie and Donnie Potter; one son-in-law, Tom Hall; grandchildren, Bryan and Dawn Marie Houtchens; her parents; her sister, Ruby Jo Fuqua and her brother, Bill Dunn.

Lucille is survived by her sons: Randy Potter Sr and wife, Marie and Pete Potter and wife, Carol; one daughter, Patsy Hall; one daughter-in-law, Linda Potter, all of Decatur; 21 grandchildren and their spouses: Amanda Potter Harper and husband, Chuck; Randy Jr., Jeremy, Tommy, Jimmy, Sherri and Ricky Potter Jr., Jordan and Shelbie Chandler, Tresa Otto, Misty Metzler, Cristy Howlett, Pam Beck, Kimberly Coy, Tommy Hall Jr., Cheryl Bond, Dana and Monty Houtchens, Nikki Lillis and Wesley Manetta; 39 great grand children; 12 great-great grandchildren, four sister-in-laws, numerous nieces, nephews, and a host of friends.

Her life revolved around caring for her husband, children, grandchildren, parents, in-laws and her community. She worked “forever” making “many a meal” cooking for the Decatur’s Rotary Club and Decatur Lions Club. She retired in 1998 after 29 years of service.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to DAV Chapter 70, P.O. Box 917, Decatur, TX 76234 in her honor.
