

MYRA JEAN WHITTEN

1942-2014

OKLAHOMA: Myra Jean Whitten, 72, a retired purchasing agent, died Saturday, October 18, 2014 in Dallas.

Myra was born on April 9, 1942 to Robert and Lou (Parker) Freeman in Fort Worth, Texas. She was united in marriage to Richard Whitten, II on February 14, 1990 in Fort Worth. Myra retired from Volks Wagon as a purchasing agent. She was a member of Shady Dale Baptist in Marietta, Oklahoma.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Richard C. Whitten, II; her daughter, Roxanne Ruddick; her son, Hoby Ruddick.

Survivors include her daughters: Cindy Ruddick of Odessa; Nelda Aleman of Hearne; Shelby Whitten of Ardmore, Oklahoma and Candi Richardson; her sons: Cameron Reed of Tishomingo, Oklahoma and Richard Whitten and wife, Lisa; her sisters: Pamela Neimeyer of Marietta, Oklahoma and Robbie Boaze of Mineola; her brothers: Danny Melton of Highlandville, Missouri and Bobby Freeman of Hearne; her sister-in-law, Sharon Tuttle; her grandchildren: Chelsea, Adam, R.C., Jessica, Amy, Demi, Ricki, Stephanie, Sarah and Jessica; great grandchildren: Dalton, Jaicee, Joseph and Arie; her great-great-grandchildren: Kynlee and Auhstin; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of friends; her brothers and sisters in Christ of Shady Dale Baptist of Marietta, Oklahoma.

Funeral service was held at 1 p.m. Saturday, October 25, 2014 at Coker- Hawkins Funeral Home with burial in New Harp Cemetery.

Bro. John Sconce and Deacon Ray Edwards officiated. Pallbearers included Steven Kelley, Michael Joe Reynolds, Thomas Hicks, Cameron Reed, Richard C. Whitten, III, and Richard C. Whitten IV.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*