

DORTHA LEE SHAW ANDERSON

1921-2015

DECATUR: Dortha Lee Shaw Anderson, 94, a homemaker, died Sunday, May 31, 2015 in Decatur.

Dortha was born on March 14, 1921 to C.O. and Vena (Brown) Shaw in Childress, Texas. She was united in marriage to Edd Anderson on June 18, 1938 in Decatur. She was a homemaker, and worked at Lorch-Westway factory. She has resided at The Hills for the past eight years. Dortha was a member of Baptist Faith, she attending New Salem, Mount Zion, and Calvary most of her life.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband of 61 years, Edd Anderson; eight brothers: Jack Shaw, Pete Shaw, Jiggs Shaw, Popeye Shaw, Buck Shaw, Bull Shaw, John Shaw and Butch Shaw; three sisters: Frankie Limburg, Lou Collins and Linda Russell.

Survivors include her four children, Eddie Anderson and wife, Patricia, of El Dorado, Arkansas; Curtis Anderson and wife, Margaret, of Decatur; Sam Anderson and wife, Peggy, of Kerens, Texas and Nancy Abrams and husband, Gary, of Shreveport, Louisiana; her grandchildren: Christy England and husband, Brad; Darrin Anderson and wife, Alicia; Jennifer Terrell and husband, Steven; Jacquelyn Anderson and fiancé, Tim Meyer; Ike Anderson and wife, Heather; James Johnson and wife, Shannon; Carson Abrams and Sarah Abrams; 10 great grandchildren; her sisters-in-law: Marcella, Margie, Maxine and Opal Shaw and Peggy Anderson; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and host of friends.

Funeral service was held at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, June 3, 2015 at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home with burial at Pleasant Grove #1.

Rev. Gary Demmitt officiated. Pallbearers were her nephews: Jeff Shaw, Ronnie Shaw, Scooter Shaw, Barry Shaw, Monte Shaw, and James Stutt.

Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.

