

ROY DALE BROOKS

1958-2015

RUMLEY COMMUNITY: Roy Dale Brooks, 56, of Rumley Community died Sunday, February 22, 2015 at his home.

Roy was born December 3, 1958 in Lampasas to Vernon Clifford Brooks and Emily (Blakley) Brooks. Roy was a dedicated farmer and rancher for over 45 years in Lampasas county, maintaining his family land heritage founded in 1876. This ranch was recognized by the State of Texas for being over a century old. Roy and his family ventured into the meat market business for a period of time. He also worked for Crimson Enterprises as superintendent on contracting jobs for 10 years.

Roy was an avid hunter and fisherman his entire life. He also showed cattle for many years.

He was preceded in death by his father, Vernon Brooks and his father in law, Orville Hensler and mother-in-law, Connie Hensler.

Survivors include his wife of 35 years, Nancy Hensler Brooks of Kempner, Texas; his daughter, Brandyl Julia Brooks of Ft Worth, Texas; his mother, Emily Brooks; a brother, Billy Joe Brooks and wife, Diane Maltby Brooks, of Jacks-boro, Texas; a sister, Mary Brooks Raub and her husband, Darryl Raub, of Lampasas, Texas and sister-in-law Sally Hensler Yancy and spouse, David Yancy, of Kempner, Texas; nieces and nephews: Misty Norwood, Torjie Wycough, Braedon Raub, Dawson Raub and Kaeson Raub.

Funeral service was held Saturday, February 28, 2015 at 3 p.m. at Sneed Funeral Chapel with burial at Rock Church Cemetery near Rumley.

Family requests that blood donations be given to Scott and White Blood Bank or a memorial gift to Lampasas County Youth Livestock Association.

*Sneed Funeral Chapel
Third & Chestnut • Lampasas, Tx.*

