

JOHN HENRY FOSTER IV

1959-2015

CHICO: John Henry Foster IV, 55, a demolition expert, died Monday, July 13, 2015, in Decatur.

John was born on August 2, 1959, to John Henry III and Louise (Britton) Foster in Fort Worth, Texas. He was united in marriage to Katherine Coon on August 8, 1998, in Bridgeport. For 28 years John worked as a demolition expert for Austin Powder. He was an active member of the Harvest Time Church in Bridgeport.

John was preceded in death by his mother, Louise Foster.

Survivors include his wife of 17 years, Katherine Foster of Chico; his father, John H. Foster III and stepmother, Mary, of Runaway Bay; his daughter, Angela Gentry and husband, Kenneth, of Lincoln, Arkansas; his son, Terry Hare and wife, Teresa, of Dequeen, Arkansas; Bryan Coon and wife, Kendra, of Chico; his grandchildren, Michael Hare and wife, Lindsay, of Bridgeport; Amber Romirez and husband, Armondo, of Dequeen, Arkansas; Shane Gentry and wife, Kellie, of Las Cruces, New Mexico; Amanda Gentry of Prairie Grove, Arkansas; Nicole, Jonathon and Mykel Smith of Chico; eight great grandchildren; other family members and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, July 16, 2015, at Hawkins Funeral Home Chapel in Bridgeport with burial at Chico Cemetery.

Pastors Fred Villa and Freddie Villa officiated.

*Hawkins Funeral Home
1909 9th St. • Bridgeport, Tx*

