

RUTH McDONALD

1915-2015

DECATUR: Ruth Mc-Donald, 99, a retired file clerk, died Monday, May 18, 2015 in Decatur.

Ruth was born on August 29, 1915 to Leonard and Virginia (Haney) Burleson in Gainesville, Texas. She was a Baptist. Ruth enjoyed learning and taught herself Spanish. She loved learning and stayed informed on all current events. She married the love of her life, Jess McDonald, right as World War II broke out. As a new bride she was put on a train from Corpus Christi to Wichita, Kansas to be with her new family. They were one big family in no time. But Ruth loved Texas and her Jess, so she came back as soon as possible.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband, Jess McDonald.

Survivors include her nieces: Arliene Irby of Keller and Judy Jenkins of Port Orange, Florida.

No services will be held.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, May 28, 2015