

1921-2014

BRIDGEPORT: Loreta Haney Moody, 93, of Bridgeport, Texas died on Thursday, December 25, 2014, Christmas Day.

Loreta was born in McCaulley, Texas August 28, 1921 to Stewart A. Haney Sr. and wife Martha (Cosby) Haney. She married John Moody July 2, 1938.

She was a wonderful daughter, wife, mother and grandmother. Her great love was her family and her church. She was youth director for many years, and never lost her youthfulness and sense of humor. Her next passion was crappie fishing. She spent many hours fishing, but said she wanted to be remembered as a 'fisherman of men.'

Loreta was preceded in death by her husband, John, daughter Mitzi, granddaughters: Kerri Russell and Kristi Belknap, brothers: S.A. Haney, Jr., Lom Strickland, Clint Haney and Duane Haney.

Survivors include her son, Lee Alan Moody and wife, Susie; daughter, Johnelle Reed and husband, Bill; son-in-law, Beaumont Brown; sister-in-law, Bobbie Haney; grandchildren: Camille Mize, John Paul Moody, Jon Brooks, Sherri Scott, Scott Brook and Mike Brooks; great-grandchildren: Josh Hubbard, Allison Belknap, Jessica Rossi, Shad Russell, April Ries, Kellie Wheeler, Zachary Scott, Stephanie DeBord, Holly Brooks, Garrett Brooks, Casey Brooks, Erika Brooks, Devin Brooks, Michael Brooks, Nichole Brooks; great-great-grandchildren Owen Rossi, Holdyn Green, Benjamin DeBord, Alexis Hubbard, Audrey Ries, Hudson Ries, Levi Wheeler, and Luke Ryan Wheeler.

Funeral service was Monday, December 29 at 2:00 pm at the First Baptist Church in Bridgeport, officiated by Dr. David Burrows. Burial was in East Bridgeport Cemetery.
