

HAZEL ROSE MOONEY

1917-2015

DECATUR: Hazel Rose Mooney, 97, a retired assembly worker, died Monday, July 6, 2015 in Decatur.

Hazel was born on October 19, 1917 to Curby and Hestor (Tilley) Cheek in Smithville, Oklahoma. She was united in marriage to Paul Rose on January 26, 1935 in Alvord, Texas. They had five children together. She married Roy Phillips in 1978 and Earl Mooney in 1987.

Hazel retired from Texas Instruments. She was a member of Cornerstone Baptist Church in Decatur.

She is preceded in death by her husbands, Paul Rose in 1965, Roy Phillips in 1981 and Earl Mooney in 1998; by her parents; her infant son in 1955; her oldest daughter, Joy Godbey in 2010; her sisters: Letha McClain, Ora King and Maxine Drummond and her brothers: Arthur Cheek, Ivan Cheek, Dennis Cheek and Nolan Cheek.

Survivors include her daughters: Paula Ellis of Weatherford and Cherrie Townsend and husband, Steve, of Hurst; her son, Richard Rose of Phoenix, Arizona; her sister, Eunice Uberman of Fort Worth; her grandchildren: Marqueta Bouldin, Melinda Plowman, Harold Stevens, Paul Stevens, Susan Hicks and Sam Godbey; 15 great-grandchildren; 18 great-great-grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and a host of friends.

Funeral service was held at 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, July 8, 2015 at Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home with burial at Oaklawn Cemetery in Decatur.

Rev. Ron Fox officiated. Pallbearers included Sam Godbey, Paul Stevens, Josh Godbey, Harold Stevens, James Plowman and Brock Barnett.

*Coker-Hawkins Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Tx.*

