

BEULAH MAE HODGES

Beulah Mae Hodges, 93, of Alvord died September 9, 2006.

Mrs. Hodges was born November 21, 1912 in Forestburg to James Monroe and Ella Yearwood Kuykendall. She married Earl Lee "Preacher" Hodges December 31, 1933 in Pella. She was a member of the Hopewell Baptist Church. She is preceded by her parents; her husband; infant son; son, Calvin Hodges; brothers, Jim, Theodore, Oscar, Bruce and Paul Kuykendall; sisters, Claude, Zula, Lillian, Buena and Josie.

Survivors include daughters, Thelma Clower of Alvord and Anita Hale and husband Gene of Jacksboro; sons, Royce and Ronald Hodges of Alvord and Jimmy Hodges and wife Melva of Irving; former daughter-in-laws, Mary Ann Hodges, Jan Hodges and Barbara Miller; sister-in-laws, Margaret Kuykendall, Tommie Ann Hodges, Ozell Gall and Meredith Hale and her husband Lee Roy; twenty grandchildren; thirty-four great-grandchildren; and ten great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral service was September 12 at the First Baptist Church in Alvord with Rev. Dan Sparkman and Bill Cleveland officiating. Interment was at the Hopewell Cemetery.

*Coker Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, September 14, 2006