

DEBORAH FUTCH ROSS

Deborah Futch Ross died March 8, 2006 at her home in Azle at the age of 49.

Mrs. Ross was born May 6, 1956 in Moab, Utah to William S. (Bill) and Linnie Futch. She has lived in Azle for the past 16 years after leaving the Bridgeport area. She made her home in Azle with her husband, Stephen Ross, and her family. She worked as an LVN and enjoyed bass fishing and cruises.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Linnie Futch and her twin brother, Teddy.

Survivors include her husband Stephen Ross of Azle; sons, William West and his wife Melonie of Whitney, Tracy Ross of Detroit, Michigan and Jeremy Ross of Fort Worth; daughter, Jennifer West and her husband Will of Brooks, Maine; sister, Sharon Nesbit and her husband Alan of Whitney; her father, Bill Futch of Whitney; and many nieces, nephews and extended family members.

Funeral services were at Mount Olivet Funeral Home Chapel followed by burial at the Mount Olivet Cemetery in Fort Worth.

*Mount Olivet Funeral Home
Fort Worth, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, April 13, 2006