

JOHN H. PANKEY

John H. Pankey, 80, of Jacksboro, died January 6, 2006 at Weatherford. He was born December 24, 1925 at Vineyard to the late William Harley and Mary Jane (Sutton) Pankey.

Mr. Pankey was owner/operator of Pankey Propane. He married the late Joan Sewell Pankey on July 15, 1948. He was a member of the Memorial Christian Church, the Jack County Sheriff's Posse, Southwest Cattle Raisers Association, Texas Propane Gas Association and Jack County Volunteer Fire Department for many years. He was also preceded in death by siblings, Arvil Sartain, Cleora Anderson, Hazel Steves and Hugh Lawrence Pankey.

He is survived by his wife, Joellen Pankey of Jacksboro; daughter, Mary Ann McDaniel and husband Carline of Hemphill; son, Harold Gene Pankey and wife, Debra of Jacksboro; sisters, Nadine Tucker and Joyce Watson of Jacksboro; six grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; four step-granchdilren; six stepchildren; and one step-great-grandchild.

Funeral service was January 9 at the Memorial Christian Church with Rev. Eugene Weldon and Dr. Tom W. Neal officiating. Interment was at the Oakwood Cemetery.

*Coker Funeral Home
405 E. Main • Decatur, Texas*

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, January 12, 2006