

TRAVIS E. "CHUCK" FOREMAN

Travis E. "Chuck" Foreman, 62, died May 21, 2006. He was born February 4, 1944 in Paradise to Ruth and Travis D. Foreman.

Mr. Foreman graduated from Bridgeport High School as valedictorian of his class, as well as the University of North Texas with a BBA in business. After serving in the US Air Force, he relocated to Dallas, beginning a banking career as vice president of Acquisitions at Mercantile Bank.

He married Kerry McMillen in 1969, choosing Richardson to raise their children. His life was a testament to his Christian beliefs and ever-present commitment to his family. He cherished time spent with family at the lake, camping, or enjoying the outdoors, preferably Colorado. His keen wit, sense of humor, and infectious laugh were apparent to all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Leon.

He is survived by his daughter, Kim Wenshau and her husband Mark; son, Steven; grandchildren, Chase and Blake; his former wife, Kerry, with whom he remained friends; sisters, Neta Briggs and Betty McKinnie and brother Lannie; brother-in-law, Steve McMillen and mother-in-law, Twila McMillen.

Memorial service was May 30 at the DFW Veterans' National Cemetery. The family request in lieu of flowers donations may be made to a charity of their choice.

Published in The Bridgeport Index and The Chico Texan, Thursday, June 1, 2006